Theatre Announces Installation of Cinemascope

In keeping with its policy of being ever on the alert to present to the public of this community, motion picture entertainment at its best, C. R. Robson this week announces completion of all arrangements to bring his theatre to the point of leadership of all small town theatres in Canada.

Having faith in the motion picture industry to continue to hold its place as leader in the entertainment field, Mr. Robson has purchased only the very finest and most costly of all equipment available. This, in effect, means that local audiences will always be able to recapture all of the realism in picture and sound effects that took place when the picture was made.

General Theatre Supplies have been awarded the contract for installation, they being installation engineers for all Famous Players, Capitol and Paramount theatres throughout Canada.

The opening picture in the new process of Cinemascope with Steriophonic sound will be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 19, 20, 21. It is "The Broken Lance," starring Spencer Tracy, Robert Wagner, Jean Peters and Richard Widmark.

This feature shows to full advantage the benefits of the new wide angle lens process and with the four-track magnetic sound system will present entertainment with realism never before thought possible.

On the same program will be a short subject titled "The Miracle of Steriophonic Sound" which will impress on the audience the added value of the new sound system.

Named As Dodge District Manager

Lloyd E. Vian of Lethbridge, Alta., has been appointed district manager of the Dodge-DeSoto division, Chrysler Corporation of Canada, Limited, Howard J. Rosebough, general sales manager for that division, announces.

Mr. Vian will work out of the Red Deer regional office of the Corporation and will cover territory in the Lethbridge area.

Before joining Chrysler of Canada, Mr. Vian covered Southern Alberta as district manager for a large Canadian manufacturer of agricultural and industrial machinery in Alberta. He had previously been a dealer for a major Canadian oil company.

He was born and educated in Vulcan, Alberta, and served in the Canadian Army during World War II.

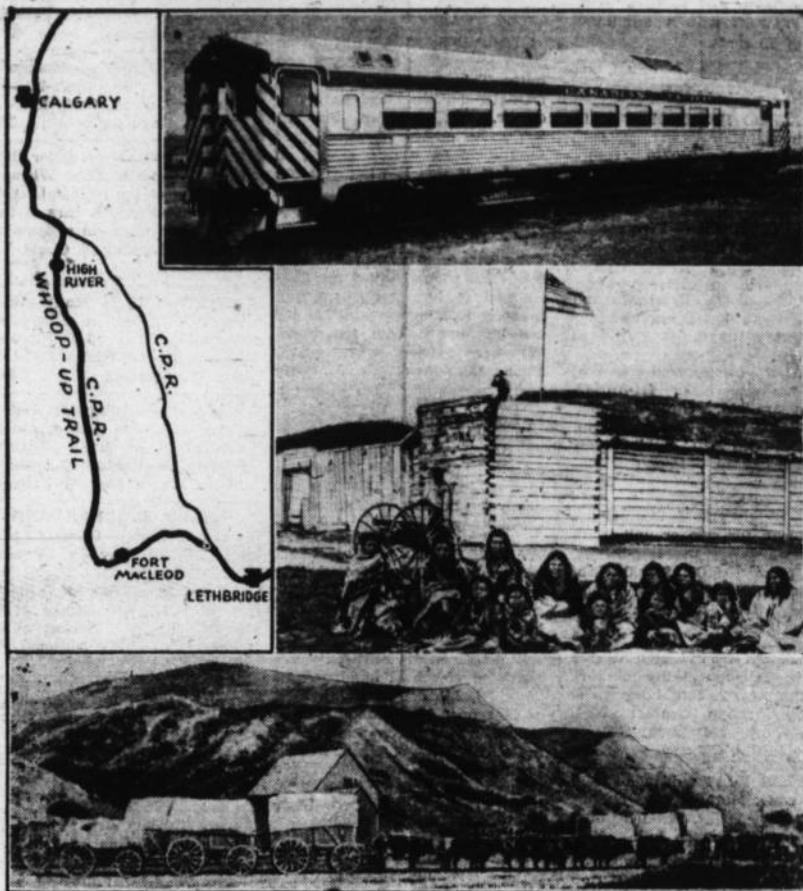

"Mr. Vian's experience in sales administration and his lifelong knowledge of the territory in which his new duties will take him will be of great value to the members of our dealer organization whom he will be contacting," Mr. Rosebough commented.

Salvation Army Campaign Opens

The 1955 Red Shield Appeal of the Salvation Army is now under way throughout the Province, with an objective of $100,000.00. This amount is necessary to operate its eight large institutions and twenty-one other centres of work throughout the Province. The Salvation Army continues to serve the unfortunate of every race, color and creed through its many phases of social welfare and spiritual work. During the last year the organization expanded and improved its properties, thus enabling it to better serve those who appeal for its help.

The campaign at Vulcan will commence this week under the chairmanship of John M. Jamison. Contributions may be left at his office, or that of J. Lundy Findlay. Receipts for donations to the Salvation Army are deductible for income tax purposes.

Canadian Cancer Society statistics show that more than 50 Canadians die of cancer each day.

DAYLINER RETRACES "WHOOUP-UP TRAIL"

The pages of Alberta's history turn with the wheels of the Canadian Pacific Railway's gleaming new self-propelled "Dayliner" on its 140-mile run between Lethbridge and Calgary, via Fort Macleod. The stainless steel streamliner actually retraces, in part, the historic "Whoop-Up Trail" over which once travelled the legendary bull trains, mule trains, the infamous whiskey traders, and later the horse-drawn stage coach and Alberta's early settlers.

The trail, which had its southern anchor at Fort Benton, Montana, ran 210 miles northward to notorious Fort Whoop-Up, built in 1869 at the junction of the St. Mary and the Oldman Rivers. With the coming of the Northwest Mounted Police in 1874, the trail was extended to Fort Macleod and later north to Fort Calgary.

District Court Sits At Vulcan For First Time

First Vulcan sittings of the District Court for the Judicial District of Calgary was held here on April 28 before Judge L. H. Stack of Calgary. The Court gave judgement in four civil cases, as well as setting-over one criminal appeal to Calgary and adjourning one civil case to the next sittings of the Court.

There was a large number of people in attendance at the first Vulcan sittings of the Court and Mayor W. D. Allan extended official greetings on behalf of the Town of Vulcan to the Judge and his retinue. Judge Stack, who practiced law in Vulcan for many years prior to his elevation to the Bench in 1945, complimented the Town upon the new court room.

Eugene Kush appeared on behalf of the plaintiffs in the civil actions and court was closed at 12:30 after all the cases were heard.

Sittings of the Court will be held at Vulcan in April and October of each year for the trial of criminal appeals as well as for district court cases under the amount of $1,000. It will no longer be necessary to go to Calgary or Lethbridge for the trial of District Court cases arising in this district.

A complete remodelling job is underway at the New Club Cafe, which will be closed from Sunday to Friday of next week for installation of new booths, counter, shelves, etc.

Booth seats will be of foam rubber covered with rose leatherette and trim will be of contrasting grey leatherette. Woodwork will be of natural blond finish and the coffee counter top will be of white arborite. The interior of the cafe has been repainted white.

A new gas heater has been installed.

Barn Destroyed As Fire Strikes Farm Second Time

Nine days after fire had destroyed a granary and 225 baby chicks on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Methers, eight miles north of Vulcan, another heavy loss was sustained by them when a blaze of undetermined origin completely destroyed their large hip-roofed barn.

The second fire occurred last Sunday afternoon and was beyond control by the time help could be summoned to fight the blaze, as the phone line was out of order. Livestock in the barn at the time included about 20 pigs and five head of cattle and these were led to safety by Mr. Methers as soon as the fire was discovered. Only partial insurance was carried and the loss included feed oats and baled hay that was stored in the barn.

In addition to neighbors and townspeople who gathered to assist, men of three geophysical crews in Vulcan — Toben Geophysical, Spalding Drilling and Frontier Geophysical — aided by using their tank trucks to haul water. The Civil Defence fire truck which has been located at Champion this past winter was called to the fire. It was in charge of Harry Smith of Champion and Bruce Gonyea of Vulcan and was used to extinguish the flames and keep them from spreading to other buildings, although nothing could be done to prevent the barn from becoming a total loss.

Neighbours have rallied to help the Methers by donating a granary and erecting a temporary cow-shed.

New Styles Are Displayed At Fashion Show

As gay and colorful as spring itself were the many beautiful ensembles for women, teen-agers and the wee miss, shown at the St. Aldhelm's Guild Fashion Show and Tea, held in the Legion Hall on Saturday afternoon.

Again the Betty Ann Shoppe proved that there is no need to go away from the hometown to obtain the latest in style and material. Cool afternoon dresses of the ever popular cotton, nylon, acetate and combinations of several different materials, for mother, daughter and baby sister, drew oh's and ah's from the interested spectators.

Smart summer suits, complemented by matching or harmonizing accessories and hats; street dresses, coats, dusters, housecoats, maternity wear, all showed how to be smartly clad for the warm months ahead.

For sleeping comfort on hot summer nights, the latest style in nightgowns, shorty nighties and pyjamas were modelled.

Appropriately enough, with the opening of the swimming pool in the near future, was shown the most beautiful of swimming attire, for young and not-so-young. Play suits in which to acquire a good summer tan and to provide the wearer with a maximum of comfort were featured.

Lovely and novel costume jewellery from Basset's Jewellery store enhanced many of the lovely outfits.

Models for the occasion were: Mrs. Dave McAfee, Mrs. Bob Jamison, Mrs. Stuart Campbell, Mrs. Frank Burchak, Mrs. Dick Anderson, Mrs. R. J. Clark, Mrs. Charlie Andrews; the Misses Marilyn Joiner, Shirley Northcott, Betty Ann Northcott, Arlene Anderson, Sandy Paris, Gerry McKay, and Lynne Richardson.

Mrs. D. O. Jantzie as commentator very ably pointed out the lovely lines of each gown or suit, giving much information regarding materials and the wearability of each garment.

Miss Terrie McAfee presided at the piano and provided soft background music for the entire show.

There was a capacity audience, which enjoyed tea before the fashion show began.

GIVE...TO PROTECT

Most Canadians believe in protecting their families with insurance. The home is protected by fire and burglary policies. Protection against premature loss of family income generally is provided by life insurance with disability benefits. Family health is safeguarded by hospitalization and surgical policy plans.

But there is a type of personal insurance based on the principle of saving life instead of financially compensating for sickness, disability, or death.

Cancer — the nation's No. 2 killer — took an estimated death toll of nearly 20,000 Canadians last year. It threatens to invade most of our homes by attacking approximately one out of every four of the nation's people at some time in life.

The Canadian Cancer Society is underwriting a three-point, nation-wide programme to present cancer facts to physicians and public; to give needed service to patients; and to give financial support to cancer research — the long-range solution for this menace.

M. D. Jarell, eminent Trichologist, demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented.

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist

Offers Written Guarantee

An exclusive interview by Ward Allen

LONDON, ONTARIO, (Special) — M. D. Jarell, Director of Jarell Hair Experts of Canada exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly and a plague to mankind," says Jarell. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Jarell method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness — can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be HeldIn Vulcan

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Vulcan, Alberta, Sunday ONLY, May 15th., at the Dobbs Hotel. Trichologist R. Cooley will conduct the private individual interview from 12 noon until 9:00 P.M. on Sunday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation, and you need no appointment.

Reason For Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness, or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair." Men, and yes, women, too, walk the streets today, completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair. Simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. "The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the same simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today."

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Jarell dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness — heredity. "Mankind's un-realistic belief that baldness is heredity stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp. The purpose of Jarell Hair and Scalp Experts is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. A healthy scalp will grow hair, if it is not already completely bald," assures Jarell.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Jarell has collected hundreds of testimonies of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Jarell is quick however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Jarell, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

"Jarell Hair Experts of Canada, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted within 30 days, the money invested, will be graciously refunded," pledged Jarell. "We must have satisfied clients. We must regrow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about your hair, call Trichologist R. Cooley at the Dobbs Hotel in Vulcan, Alberta. Sunday ONLY from 12 noon to 9:00 P.M. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarrassed or obliged in any way.

LOOKING FOR A BARGAIN?

With prices so much higher than they were before the war, bargains are hard to find these days.

For example... materials used in building houses have gone up 179%.

Food is up 107%.

The average wholesale price of all the things people buy has gone up 116% (and those are government figures) but during the same period the price of gasoline has gone up only 35% (less than one-third of the average).

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will hold a tea in the IOOF hall basement on Saturday afternoon, May 7th. A bake sale and sale of flowers will be held in conjunction with the tea.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Heather were Mr. and Mrs. Damien Corbiell of Cluny, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Varhaug and family, all of Enchant. The occasion was George's birthday.

The annual trek to the lease with cattle is underway and the usual band of weather arrived to accompany the cattle haulers. On Tuesday Ed Fitzpatrick and Gordon Boyd started out early in the morning with their cattle and got caught in the baby blizzard. They got as far as Clemmons's coulee and had to leave the cattle in the pasture and Bert Clemmons took them home. A gravelled road would save a lot of grief and inconvenience to a lot of taxpayers.

Th moral would seem to be if friend husband is taking a load of pork to market and you want to tag along to the city to go when the going is good. Mrs. Bertschy decided to wait and go with the truck on Tuesday instead of Monday. Well, she got to Calgary alright, but it was storming so Fred had to turn around and come back home. As the men-folks will say he likely came home with more money in his pocket.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Clemmons were Mrs. Hattie Clemmons and family of Queenstown.

Mrs. Bert Clemmons and Ricky spent the weekend at Cluny with Mr. and Mrs. S. Fraser.

A few farmers had started spring preparations but the snow and rain of Tuesday held up progress for a few days. Some seeding of feed grains has been done but work is by no means general. Reports are that the moisture is welcome.

Nitrite Poisoning in Cattle

The following information was recently received from Dr. J. G. O'Donoghue, Extension Veterinarian of the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

"Nitrite poisoning has been recognized in cattle for the last ten years. It is the result of the consumption of nitrates which undergo changes in the digestive tract and are absorbed as nitrites. The nitrites combine with elements of the blood and interfere with its function of supplying oxygen to the body. This results in severe symptoms and death within a few hours from oxygen starvation."

Oat hay has been responsible for the majority of cases of nitrate poisoning and because of this oat hay poisoning is a term commonly used. Indeed poisoning from oat hay was a recognized entity for many years, prior to the discovery that the nitrate content of it was the responsible factor. The exact conditions which determine the amount of nitrate in a particular lot of oat straw are unknown but it is related to the quantity of nitrate in the soil. Heavily fertilized or manured land has been suspected in some cases. One case occurred in Alberta where oat hay was taken from a field, a small part of which had been a sheep corral for years. It was assumed that the oat straw from this particular area carried the high nitrate content. It is known that animals will eat from a stack or be fed out bundles with no ill effects and suddenly encounter a portion containing nitrates in toxic amounts. Nitrate poisoning has also occurred in Alberta where animals were being watered from a shallow well heavily contaminated by barnyard drainage. In this case the high level of nitrates in the water was from the manure drainage.

Fortunately, this type of poisoning is not common, but several cases are reported in Alberta each year. The most recent instance was the loss of four head of beef cattle in the Donald area. Out bundles were incriminated in this case. There are no routine precautions that can be recommended, but certainly the possible danger of nitrite poisoning should be realized. A veterinarian should be called immediately if animals, being fed on oat hay or bundles, suddenly show signs of illness. The symptoms would include gasping for breath, staggering, bluish discoloration of the membranes of the

SERVICE BOARD NOTES

H. S. Burns, Field Supervisor

The policy in regard to the loaning of the small spot sprayers will be somewhat changed this year. Each time a unit is loaned the borrower will be asked to sign a card or receipt showing the date, etc., and when it is not returned by the end of the fourth day a small charge of $1.00 per day is to be assessed. This policy is not intended to be a hardship to anyone but is only intended to keep these machines in use and get the maximum use from them during the weed season.

The policy of handling chemicals for roadside work will be much the same as in the past, whereby farmers may obtain chemicals for this purpose at half price. We will have available during this season the more potent chemical Sodium Chlorate which will be somewhat cheaper than Atlacide although both will be kept on hand. These chemicals should not be used around buildings on account of the fire hazard as it has been known to ignite from no apparent cause on a hot day after the weeds have become dry, and burns with great rapidity. Sodium Chlorate is used in large quantities in other parts of the province and due to the considerable difference in the price and effectiveness, your Service Board felt that it should be kept on hand as well as the Atlacide of former years.

Neighbors from far and near gathered there to pay their last respects to this lady, who with her husband had come to the Champion district in the early days.

Born in the County Antrim, Ireland, and coming to Canada when a young woman, she had lived on their farm home east of Champion until moving to Calgary in 1948. She was in her 64th year. She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband George; five sons, Clarence, Cecil, Walter, Leonard and Glenn; three daughters, Mrs. Elran Nelson (Mary) of Barons, Mrs. Stanley Lyckman (Hazel) of Carmangay, and Mrs. Pete Weins (Doreen) of Calgary; nineteen grandchildren and a host of friends.

Rev. Peter Dawson and the Salvation Army Captain read the last rites.

Pall-bearers were Jack Sanderson, Harold Matlock, Clyde Alfred, Wm. Erwin, Albert White, and Walter Smith.

Interment was in Mountainview cemetery and McInnis and Hollway were in charge of arrangements.

Thank You
We wish to extend our grateful thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement.

— George Rhodes and family.
The ladies of the Champion W.A. wish to thank everyone who so kindly assisted in any way with transporting supplies, serving, etc., on the day of Wm. Christensen's Auction Sale.

Why not tax the man who lets his property go to wreck, rather than the man who keeps his property in good condition? As it is at present, the man who employs the painter and the carpenter to make his place of residence more attractive and who thus improves the appearance of the whole neighborhood is penalized by increased taxation, while the man who allows his property to become an eyesore, and thus decrease the value of his neighbor's property, is encouraged in his neglect by reduced taxation.
